

Medium Term Overview Plan – Autumn 1 2018

Voyager Class

Enquiry topic	We're going on an adventure - creating our own and learning from others'!
w/c	3 rd September INSET	10 th September	17 th September	24 th September	1 st October	8 th October	15 th October	22 nd October
Wow moments	Video clips of amazing adventures – what is an adventure? What do we learn from adventures?				Kilve Court Residential			Open classroom for parents – what have we learned from our own and others' adventures?
English Shackleton's Journey by William Grill Punctuation and grammar	Cover story; recount; character profile	Using research for a fact file; writing a personal statement in role; asking and answering questions in role Punctuation for parenthesis: dashes	Using empathy and reasoning to write an informal letter; writing a shared poem Punctuation for parenthesis: brackets Active and passive voice	What makes a motivational speech; writing and delivering a speech using emotive language Relative clauses; pronouns and relative pronouns		Recreating a scene using drama; writing a letter or a telegram in role Verbs: present and past progressive / continuous tenses	Using persuasive language; conscience alley; performing and writing a scene Verbs: in the perfect form	Using eyewitness accounts in an online newspaper recount; identifying impact in writing Review
Maths	Number and place value Ordering and comparing	Number and place value Negative number	Addition and subtraction	Addition and subtraction BODMAS		Multiplication Mental and written calculations	Geometry Properties of shape	Geometry Draw/ make shapes

	Counting Rounding Solve problems	Multiply and divide by 10, 100, 1000 etc. Solve problems	Mental and written calculations Rounding/ estimating to check calculations	Multi-step problems		Rounding/ estimating to check calculations Multi-step problems	2-D and 3-D shapes Quadrilaterals, triangles and regular polygons	Visual representation Shape problems
Science Evolution and Inheritance		How are offspring different or similar to their parents?	How have animals adapted to their environment? How does this lead to evolution?	How does adaptation lead to evolution in harsh environments?		What is the evidence that evolution has happened in the past?	Charles Darwin; who is he and why is he famous?	Adaptation to cold climates
Geography Antarctica	Curious continents; Location knowledge	Fascinating Imagery; Antarctic geomorphology	Perplexing Poles; Climate zones	Shaping the World; Mapping the journey of the Endurance Expedition		Living and learning on the ice; do people live on Antarctica?	Endurance day	Review and Assessment
Computing Programming – scratch		Adding and changing inputs	Adapting inputs to have an assortment of outputs	Using sensors within a programme		Constructing my merry go round	Testing my merry go round	Review and assessment
Art Chalk pastels and the study of Sidney Nolan			Introducing the work of Sidney Nolan and other themed work. Compare ideas,	Application of pastel and colour blending techniques		Composition of their landscape	Developing their landscape	Evaluation of techniques methods and approaches.

Music		Staff notation using Ocarina: posture, breathing, 'tonguing', sound, first note positions.	Staff notation using Ocarina: 'singing' notes, rhythms, first note positions and changing between them.	Staff notation using Ocarina: application of notes on stave, rhythms, note values, rests and counting.		Staff notation using Ocarina: Revision of progress so far.	Staff notation using Ocarina: new notes / practice of old notes, reading and writing notes and melodies.	Staff notation using Ocarina: adding performance direction to melodies, played and written.
PE Invasion games (netball)		Throwing and catching – chest, shoulder, overhead	Footwork, change of direction	Attacking play		Shooting	Playing a game	Playing a game
MFL Telling the time		Numbers 0-12	Age	Numbers 11-20		numbers 21-30	what's the time...o'clock
PSHE Being Healthy		What does it mean to be healthy? What is a healthy lifestyle?	Personal hygiene – link to PE	The power of 'yet' – preparing for school camp		Healthy online – e-safety link	Drugs – alcohol, tobacco, caffeine	Road safety – prepare to teach younger children/ lead assembly Road Safety week 21-28 Nov