PSHE Year 5	Research the UN convention on the rights of a child by looking at the power point (attached) which contains some of these rights.	All of the rights are important, however, some might be more important to you than others. Make a poster that includes the 5 most important rights to you (from the power point). Remember to illustrate each right if you can.	In 2018, UNICEF raised money by asking thousands of pupils across the UK to kick, bounce, or carry a football in the school playground around a fun obstacle course they've designed! Design a fun obstacle course that you could use to complete the activity above. Even though this event is in the past, it is a nice reminder of the small things we can do to make a big difference to children all around the world.	Choose 5 rights that are most important to you. Order them from most to least important. Why have you put them in this order? Why is the one you have chosen most important to you?
PSHE - 'Secondary School transition' resources to be worked through at your own pace. Changing Me planning and resources will be emailed to parents at the start of Week commencing 8thJune.

Where might you be able to see Agape?	Watch the video of 'The Good Samaritan'- Create a cartoon strip of the story of the Good Samaritan, explaining how 'Agape' love comes into the story.	Out of things found in your house/garden, create a piece of art that represents 'Agape' (love) For example, could you lay out items in the shape of a heart?	What did Jesus words say about selfless, unconditional love? Why do you think that these words have become so important to Christians throughout the world? Do they have anything to say to people who are not Christians?
